

Did you know that there were 8 major changes to International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRSs) in 2010?

Including a new IFRS Practice Statement on Management Commentary.

Do you feel you need a refresher on the critical areas impacting accountants and auditors when preparing IFRS financial statements?

The IASB plans on issuing and changing another 9 standards (4 new) and 3 IFRS Interpretations during 2011!!

Are you finding it difficult to stay informed of changes and new developments in IFRS?

With this in mind are you concerned about constantly staying up-to-date with IFRS?

Your solution is the new and exciting 'IFRS 4U' program presented by MIPA. IFRS 4U consists of three one-day sessions during 2011 focusing on IFRS, with the first session to be held on 5th and 6th April 2011 (a choice of 2 days). By attending these sessions, you can relax in the knowledge that your IFRS knowledge is up-to-date!!

These three one-day seminars will provide you with an update on changes in IFRSs, new IFRSs and IFRS Interpretations (IFRICs). The program will also review important and fundamental IFRSs, even those with little or no recent changes. Here we shall focus on IFRSs which are most widely-used and may need some clarification and a refresher on the major issues.

Your investment for staying up-to-date will entail a very competitive fee of MUR 5.000 per session. Participants, who book for the whole 2011 program, will pay only MUR 13,500. Therefore, you know exactly the cost and the dates for all your IFRS training needs NOW! Participants will receive a CPD Certificate that constitutes verifiable CPD hours.

So what are you waiting for?

Book your place on the program now and your IFRS knowledge will not fall behind!
