

DAY 1 (15.11.10)

8.30 – 9.00 Registration

Morning session (09.00 – 12.00)

Welcome

Official opening by Chief Guest – Deva Virahsawmy, Minister of Environment and Sustainable Development

Tea Break

Koos du Toit, President ECSAFA

Professional accountants – a necessary pillar for economic development

Lunch

Afternoon session (13.15 – 17.00)

Ali Mansoor, Financial Secretary

Improving transparency and accountability in the public sector

Jamil Ampomah, ACCA Director for Sub-Saharan Africa

Thought Leadership in the SME sector

Tea Break

Roshi Badhain, Associate CFE and ex-Director of Investigations, ICAC

Forensic Auditing

DAY 2 (16.11.10)

Morning session (09.00 – 12.30)

Jayendra Kumar Ramtohul, Head of Accounting & Budgeting Division, BoM
IFRS and implication to central banking

Tea Break

David Cropper, Director of Academic Affairs at the Botswana Accountancy College in Gaborone and former Chairman of the Southern African (SADC) CIMA Board
The role of a management accountant in influencing the strategic decision of your organisation

James Benoit, CEO, AfrAsia Bank Ltd
Accountants: A banker's point of view

Lunch

Afternoon session (13.30 – 16.30)

Afsar Ebrahim, Partner BDO
Parallel between Managing a Football Team and Managing a Team in a Professional Services Firm

Milan Meetarbhan, Chief Executive, Financial Services Commission

Nargis Bhundun, Arbitration Expert
Growing importance of arbitration and role of the accountant in arbitration

Cocktail